

How dare you try to allow telemarketers to harass me with unsolicited phone calls. You should spend more time worrying about the citizens and less time pandering to your political contributors.